II. Statement of Claim:

State as briefly as possible the facts of your case. Describe how each of the defendants named in the caption of this complaint is involved in this action, along with the dates and locations of all relevant events. You may wish to include further details such as the names of other persons involved in the events giving rise to your claims. Do not cite any cases or statutes. If you intend to allege a number of related claims, number and set forth each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional sheets of paper as necessary.

- A. In what institution did the events giving rise to your claim(s) occur?
The events giving rise to my claim occurred in my home at the time and in the 46th Police Precinct in the Bronx
- B. Where in the institution did the events giving rise to your claim(s) occur?
 _____
 _____
 _____
- C. What date and approximate time did the events giving rise to your claim(s) occur?
The events giving rise to my claim occurred on October 3, 2010 (10/3/2010) at approximately 10:30 a.m.

This was a warrantless, non-consensual entry into my apartment where no exigent circumstances existed so that these detectives could make a misdemeanor arrest. Sunday

D. Facts: At approximately 10:30 a.m. October 3, 2010 my doorbell rang, I opened my apartment door and upon seeing a man and a woman outside talking in to one another in Spanish, I opened the hallway door, as my next door neighbor was a Spanish speaking daycare operator and I assumed that the two people were there to see her. They did not immediately come into the hallway, instead they held the door open continuing to talk. I went back into my apartment and closed the door.

What happened to you?

Who did what?

Was anyone else involved?

Who else saw what happened?

Minutes later there was a knock on my apartment door, I opened my door seeing the two people who had earlier rang the bell. When I opened my door I stood beyond the threshold of my door way on the inside of my apartment and they stood on the opposite side of the threshold after speaking with what I learned was two detectives for a few minutes, I pushed the door so as to close it while stepping away from it, Detective Morales-Bell stopped the door from closing and yelled out "WE CAN COME IN!" "WE CAN COME IN!". I said, shocked and at that point very nervous, No you can't. Continuing to claim they were there investigating a kidnapping they asked me 3 times to come to the Precinct with them and each time I refused, then Detective Morales-Bell yells "YOU HAVE TO COME WITH US!" "YOU HAVE TO COME WITH US!", at that I became afraid for myself, my father and my son who were in my father's room, which we were standing in front speaking when this occurred. Based on the tone of the detective's voice and her body language I feared they were about to get violent so I involuntarily went with them and was imprisoned for 18 months.

III. Injuries:

If you sustained injuries related to the events alleged above, describe them and state what medical treatment, if any, you required and received. I didn't sustain any physical injuries relative to the events, but I was deeply traumatized and had and continue to have high anxiety and serious depression.

IV. Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies:

The Prison Litigation Reform Act ("PLRA"), 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a), requires that "[n]o action shall be brought with respect to prison conditions under section 1983 of this title, or any other Federal law, by a prisoner confined in any jail, prison, or other correctional facility until such administrative remedies as are available are exhausted." Administrative remedies are also known as grievance procedures.
